

THE TAMPA TRIBUNE
TAMPA, FLORIDA, SUNDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1958

Second line, with its sweeping Longfellow finger, is in foreground, with Storey Point at right center. View is north along Old Tampa Bay.

Tampa Fingers

By GEORGE ENIGHT
Tampa Tribune Building
Taking to a world wonder is the Tampa Tribune Building, a landmark of the city which is now being completed and will be ready for occupancy by the middle of next year.

FOR MANY YEARS in the development of Tampa and Florida, there has been a need for a newspaper building which would be a landmark in the city. The Tribune Building, which is now being completed, will be a landmark of the city.

THE TRIBUNE BUILDING is a landmark of the city. It is a landmark of the city. It is a landmark of the city. It is a landmark of the city. It is a landmark of the city.

THE TRIBUNE BUILDING is a landmark of the city. It is a landmark of the city. It is a landmark of the city. It is a landmark of the city. It is a landmark of the city.

THE TRIBUNE BUILDING is a landmark of the city. It is a landmark of the city. It is a landmark of the city. It is a landmark of the city. It is a landmark of the city.

Storey Point is shown in its setting between Beach and Sunset Parks. Property owners have indicated future plans.

Florida State, which is now being built in its quality, is north of Courtney Campbell Causeway, west of airport.

Clipped By:

oreosimmons
Tue, Jul 2, 2019